

HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT: FINDING YOUR PLACE IN ORGANIZATIONS

Number of sessions: 14

Length of each session: 3 hours and 20 minutes

Total length of the seminar: 45 hours

Includes Individual Counselling & Guidance

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The objective of this course is to enable students to find their place in organizations by developing the appropriated competencies and promoting the right attitudes and behaviour. In order to balance life and career pursuits, nowadays, we talk about managing career trajectories. Ethics and Tech Savvy have also become critical. Students will have to design a marketing plan where they are the product. We will study the latest trends in job searching as well as web 2.0 technologies to create ones personal branding and product placement in the labour market.

The program invites students to reflection on the use of diverse tools. The feedback they get from both the teacher and their colleagues (from different nationalities) is very important; as the former and the later may act as a focus group from the worldwide marketplace.

APPROACH:

The course combines techniques from organizational psychology, coaching and mentoring.

Introduce students to the latest 2.0 technologies.

Combines Career Exploration and Job Searching with Marketing tools such as the Marketing plan and Personal Branding concept.

Guest speakers (Human Resources Managers and Recruiting Managers) will be invited to class.

The instructor will work closely with each student.

The professor enhances networking within the classroom as an essential tool for their professional development.
