Professor’s contact and office hours: Tuesday, 12.30-13.30 (20.257)
Course contact hours: 45
Recommended credit: 6 ECTS credits
Course prerequisites: There are no prerequisites for this course.
Language requirements: Recommended level in the European Framework B2 (or equivalent: Cambridge Certificate if the teaching language is English, DELE or 3 semesters in the case of Spanish)

Course focus and approach:
This is a course that emphasizes the historical development of Barcelona from Pre-Roman times until nowadays. Although this course has a dominant historical approximation, other disciplines will be also taken into account, such as art, literature, architecture and urbanism.

Course description:
Once labeled by Newsweek magazine as the “coolest city in Europe”, Barcelona enjoys the reputation of a cosmopolitan city with a great international projection. Like all places, however, it is not void of peculiarities and contradictions. Behind a glossy and tourist-friendly façade, the city has a complex history. This course introduces the student to the city of Barcelona by studying its past and analyzing its present. This interdisciplinary course covers subject in history, geography, art, architecture, and urban planning. Material includes images, maps, academic and literary texts, videos, field studies, and documentaries. We will also discuss issues relevant to people living within the city of Barcelona today.

Learning objectives:
By the end of the course, the student:
• Will have acquired a survey knowledge of the history of Barcelona from Roman times to the present.
• Will have received an introduction to the basic elements of urban history with an emphasis on the transformation of the physical environment.
• Will be versed in the historical origins of the challenges facing city residents in Barcelona today.

Course workload:
The course is divided into lectures, discussions, and field studies. Students should be prepared to read between 50 to 150 pages per week.
Teaching methodology:
The course includes both lectures and field studies. During the field studies, students are expected to take notes and treat field studies as a normal lecture class.

Assessment criteria:
- Midterm exam: 30%
- Final exam: 30%
- Class participation: 15%
- Term paper (and paper draft): 25%

BaPIS absence policy
