

Join us for a weekly information series on popular destinations, disciplines and topics designed to provide you with practical information for studying with IES Abroad. Learn about the many ways our programs can provide meaningful cultural awareness and quality academic programming while exploring the world at www.IESabroad.org/event/zoom-around-the-world.

INFORMATION SESSION SCHEDULE:

Zoom with us for 30 minutes each week, live at 2:00 p.m. Central Time

MUSIC & THEATER

Tuesday, September 1 | Tuesday, October 6

Step out of the traditional classroom by studying cello at a Viennese palace just steps from Mozart's home or viewing a Shakespearean play at the Globe. Take your passion abroad and get up close and personal with the greats. Come learn more about the best places to study music and performing arts with IES Abroad!

HEALTH STUDIES

Thursday, September 3 | Wednesday, November 4

Working in the health field requires the ability to connect with people from many walks of life. Studying health abroad will help you to build the skills you need! Join us to learn more about health study programs on three different continents (plus the Caribbean!).

BARCELONA

Wednesday, September 9 | Thursday, October 1

What city has a rich cultural heritage, a creative and eclectic food scene, colorful and iconic architecture, and is only steps from the beach? Barcelona, of course! Come learn about this wonderful city and the incredible study abroad experience you will have with our top-notch professors at IES Abroad Barcelona.

GENERAL INFORMATION SESSION

Tuesday, September 15 | Thursday, October 8

Interested in studying abroad, but don't know where to start? Join us to learn about all the study abroad and internship programs IES Abroad has to offer in Africa, Asia Pacific, Europe, and Latin America.

POLITICAL SCIENCE/ INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Thursday, September 17 | Wednesday, October 14

Why should you study abroad as a Political Science or International Relations student? Make connections, learn on-the-ground, and do a part-time internship!

VIENNA

Tuesday, September 22 | Tuesday, October 27

Come learn for yourself why the music, culture, and history of this world-class city elicit nothing but adoration from those who go to Vienna. Make the best of your own Vienna study abroad experience on one of our programs that includes music history, business, psychology, and much more in this European center of scholarship.

BUSINESS

Thursday, September 24 | Thursday, October 22

In the business world, it's all about standing out—a study abroad experience will give you that edge. Join this session to learn about courses at prestigious universities, cutting-edge entrepreneurship hubs, and the financial workings of your host country. Complement your courses with a hands-on internship that's sure to boost your résumé!

PSYCHOLOGY

Wednesday, September 30 | Thursday, November 12

Whether you have an interest in gender studies, peace, health, the environment, or social movements, the study of Psychology helps you understand yourself and other's behavior. Going overseas is the perfect setting for learning Psychology—discovering new perspectives is what studying abroad is all about.

MAKING A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE: IES Abroad's Diversity Initiative is All About You

Tuesday, November 10

At IES Abroad, study abroad is our form of social justice and platform for positive change. And, enabling you to be uniquely you abroad is at the center of everything we do. More than 10 years ago, we created an innovative, sustained initiative that's cultivated a multifaceted student body, which reflects the world's rich diversity. Join us for a special information session to learn more about our Initiative to Diversify Education Abroad (IDEA). We've inspired nearly 18,000 students of color plus thousands more students across a spectrum of diverse identities to study abroad and intern around the globe.
