

AH 320 ART HISTORY: 19TH CENTURY ART - IMPRESSIONISM AND POSTIMPRESSIONISM
IES Abroad Arles

DESCRIPTION:

This course provides an in-depth study and pictorial survey of Impressionism, its origins and its legacy presented from a general overview of the evolution of painting, with a focus on key elements in the Impressionist movement such as composition, color and style; a study of the aesthetic evolution of Impressionism through the works of the movement's forerunners, artists who constitute the core group and their immediate descendants; and a study of the Impressionist movement's effects on 20th century art and the ways in which today's artists reaffirm the legacy by using elements that gave the movement its vitality and energy.

Students will study works from the following artists: Millet, Manet, Monet, Renoir, Degas, Seurat, Cezanne, Van Gogh and Gauguin. The course is made up of lectures illustrated by slides and group discussion. Visits will be made to local museums, such as Musée Réattu and Fondation Van Gogh, to view the art studied in the classroom.
