

JP 201i JAPANESE LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT NOVICE ABROAD III

IES Abroad Tokyo

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This class is for students with two semesters of Japanese instruction or the equivalent. By the program's conclusion, successful students will have the linguistic, socio-linguistic, and socio-cultural competence necessary to deal with language functions such as making phone calls, making appointments, invitations, polite requests, and apologies.

This course is designed to strengthen what students will study in class and to promote communicative competence by interacting with Japanese people outside of the classroom. The Instructor will provide students with various tasks to interact with host families, center staff, friends, and visitors. Through these interactions, students and their interlocutors learn to negotiate and understand the meaning of each other's utterances.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Regular class attendance is considered mandatory, according to the Academic Policy Guidelines. Following the attendance policy of IES Abroad Tokyo, attendance of all classes is required including course-related trips. Unexcused absences will therefore result in significant grade penalties. In this course, each unexcused absence will result in a penalty of a full letter grade from students' final grades: That is, one missed class turns an A into a B, two missed classes turns it into a C, three turns it into a D. An absence is considered "excused" only if it is unavoidable due to documented illness or other health conditions, or for other reasons approved by the instructor in advance. Any exams, tests, presentations, or other work missed due to student absences can only be rescheduled in cases of documented medical or family emergencies.
