

AH 223 A3 GREAT 20TH CENTURY ARTISTS: PICASSO, DALÍ, MIRÓ
IES Abroad Barcelona

DESCRIPTION: The work of these three international artists with distinct Catalan roots is explored on an individual basis within the wider framework of European art movements. In each case, we will study the acceptance and/or rejection of tradition, the interaction with French art and artists, and personal experience. We will also pay attention to the role of both outside stimuli (war, relationships) and inner forces (memory, imagination). The course will include course related excursions to the Picasso Museum, the MNAC (Catalan National Museum of Art) and the Miró Foundation in Barcelona as well as a mandatory Friday trip to the Dalí Theatre Museum in Figueres.

CREDITS: 3 credits

CONTACT HOURS: 45 hours

Midterm and Final Exams

Slide test and short essay questions on course content, two of them based on images of paintings that we analysed in greater depth in class.

Class Presentation

Students must give the rest of the class a 10 to 15-minute presentation on a specific aspect of one of the three artists studied, individually or in groups of up to three. This normally consists of preliminary preparation for the student's term paper. A clear PowerPoint will be required, and other material is also encouraged (films clips, handouts etc.).

Term Paper

Individually or in groups of up to three students choose a topic suitable for a research paper. The teacher will approve topics and aid students in locating valid sources (libraries, museums, etc). This paper has a minimum length of 2000 words (1 student), 2900 (2 students), 3600 (3 students).

Dalí Course - Related Trip Report

A 500-word field trip report for based on the mandatory full-day Dalí course-related trip.

Participation

This includes attendance, participation in class discussions, the forwarding of pertinent questions, familiarity with the Reader texts.

Reader question response

Responding to reader questions for the Reader texts for each session on Moodle.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By the end of the course students will be able to:

- apply basic art historical tools to describe and explain a painting
- identify the most important facts in the lives of these three painters (Picasso, Dalí and Miró) and apply them to the analysis of their oeuvre
- distinguish the key features and symbols that appear in the art works and interpret their meaning
- describe the different periods in which their work is classified
- compare the most important avant-garde movements of the late 19th century

ATTENDANCE POLICY: As a member of our class community, you are expected to be present and on time every day. Attending class has an impact on your learning and academic success. For this reason, attendance is required for all IES Barcelona classes, including course-related excursions. If a student misses more than three classes in any course without justification, 3 percentage points will be deducted from the final grade for every additional absence. Seven unjustified absences in any course will result in a failing grade. Absences will only be justified, and assessed work, including exams, tests and presentations rescheduled, in cases of documented medical or family emergencies.
