DESCRIPTION:
This 3-hour weekly course aims to give students a good knowledge of French grammar, syntax and specific vocabulary so that they can master their oral and written expression as well as their oral and written comprehension. It targets competences at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

CREDITS: 3 hours

CONTACT HOURS: 45 hours

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION: French

PREREQUISITES:
This course is intended for students who are familiar with the essential mechanisms of the French language and wish to improve both their oral and written comprehension and their oral and written expression.

ADDITIONAL COST: None

METHOD OF PRESENTATION:
The 3 hours of weekly classes are divided as follows:
- Learning and/or deepening of the essential points of the grammar and structures of the language.
- Practical application of the concepts studied with exercises in application, oral and written comprehension, reformulation and discussions.
- Vocabulary enrichment, improved communication skills and quality.

REQUIRED WORK AND FORM OF ASSESSMENT:
- Midterm Exam – 25%
- Final Exam – 25%
- Weekly Assignments (summaries, essays, h5p, scorm, etc.) – 15%
- Field Studies – 10%
- Presentation – 15%
- Participation – 10%

Midterm Exam
The midterm exam is divided into three parts: a grammar section, a vocabulary section and a written expression section. The grammar section includes several exercises to check whether the theoretical contributions are assimilated and whether the learner is able to reuse the concepts in targeted exercises. The vocabulary section aims to evaluate whether learners have memorized the thematic vocabulary words. The written expression section evaluates if the learner is able to reuse all the notions studied in class as well as the thematic vocabulary. It also estimates the learners’ ability to formulate an argument in a clear and structured way. For this section, the evaluation grid for written productions of DALF B1 is used (Annex I). Students will have 2 hours to complete the exam.

Final Exam
The final exam consists of the same format as the midterm. Students will have 2 hours to complete the exam.

Weekly Assignments
H5p assignments on Moodle include thematic listening comprehension exercises and the revision of grammatical and syntactic concepts. In-class assignments include tests and text summaries. Weekly assignments must be carried out without external help in order to be able to assess the difficulties of each student and to provide remedial support.

Field Studies
Field studies are related to certain themes (e.g. gastronomy, history). Students must either give an oral presentation (approx. 10 minutes) or write an essay.

Oral Presentation
Students will have to choose a subject related to the city of Nantes from a list provided at the beginning of the semester or select a subject of their choice, and validated by the professor. Students can use any form of support for this presentation. The aim of the presentation is to assess students’ ability to present a specific topic in a clear and organized way, using specific vocabulary, without resorting to reading. It evaluates skills to explain and illustrate a topic. A summary will be given to students during their presentation and corrected in advance. This exercise is evaluated with the DELF oral presentation evaluation grid (Annex II).

Participation
Active participation of each student is evaluated throughout the semester (speaking out, participating in learning activities or putting concepts into practice).

LEARNING OUTCOMES:
By the end of the course, students will be able to:
- Acquire all or part of the skills related to the “Independent Abroad” level defined in the IES Abroad MAP for Language and Intercultural Communication. The correspondence between the key skills, numbers and letters is defined in Annex III.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:
The courses offered by IES Abroad are designed to take advantage of the teacher's unique collaboration, and the lecture/discussion format is the main teaching modality. At the end of the course selection period, classroom attendance is therefore mandatory. Absences can only be excused for valid reasons. It is the students' responsibility to provide proof of these absences, for example a medical certificate. Absences due to travel or visits by friends or family members are not excused. Absences that are not excused for valid reasons will have consequences on your final grade in the course: each non-excused absence will lead to a half letter reduction of the final grade (e.g. B+ will be reduced to B, A to A-) and may also lead to a lower participation grade. Seven absences in a course will result in an "F" for that course. Each examination, test, presentation, research work or other exercise not carried out because of an absence may only be rescheduled in the event of a duly justified medical or family emergency.

CONTENT:
The breakdown is done by theme, not by week. NB: Themes are likely to vary according to current events and students' interests.
