FR 441 FRENCH WRITING SKILLS WORKSHOP: EMERGING COMPETENT ABROAD
IES Abroad Nice

DESCRIPTION:
Writing in French requires that students follow many strict rules that are set according to the form of writing: personal, professional, formal, etc. Not only do students have the pressure of writing correctly and articulately, but they also can feel anxious about being corrected and making mistakes and this can be intimidating and paralyzing. This writing workshop will make writing in French fun. It won’t only be about respecting and enforcing the rules, but it will allow students to play with language and to realize that writing is not only a means to achieve a pragmatic goal, but it’s also a way to explore and play with language. In addition, the workshop will address systematically the problems that arise in the production of a text and it will introduce students to the rules and norms necessary to create an academic text in French. Finally, upon completion of this course, students will be able to convey personal communications (e-mails and other informal messages), as well as academic and professional texts (formal letters, cover letters, CVs, essays, thesis statements, etc.).

CREDITS: 3 credits

CONTACT HOURS: 45 hours

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION: French

PREREQUISITES: 6 semesters of college-level French or the equivalent; completion of IES Abroad’s Independent Abroad level as defined by the IES Abroad MAP for Language and Intercultural Communication. Likewise, students should be interested in improving their writing skills, have a positive attitude towards linguistic reflection and be prepared to responsibly participate in course activities both individually and in groups.

METHOD OF PRESENTATION:
This writing workshop incorporates reading and communication exercises that are designed to ensure that students understand the text before beginning their analysis. We will use audio-visual materials (reports, interviews, film excerpts etc.) to help the students collect ideas. In class, writing activities will be arranged for group work, which will encourage interaction and the exchange of ideas. Once students have completed their written work they may read it in front of the group who will be asked to comment on each other’s work or ideas.

REQUIRED WORK AND FORM OF ASSESSMENT:
- 10 % - Class participation
- 25 % - Papers and homework
- 30 % - Midterm Exam
- 35 % - Final exam

Assignments
Each week or every two weeks, a written assignment will be given in relation to the weekly topic as outlined in the chart which follows. Students should expect to dedicate about 3 hours weekly outside of class toward homework assignments.

Course Participation
Students are expected to actively participate in each class session, and many of the group exercises require full student engagement.
Midterm
The midterm will consist of two parts:
1. Students will be required to demonstrate their understanding of a selected text by responding to short-answer questions.
2. Students will be asked to write an essay that could take the form of one of the following: a position paper on a given topic; a paper that challenges or debates an issue; a paper that critically analyzes a selected topic, etc.

Final Exam
The final cumulative exam will be similar to the midterm exam, in that students will have to write a paper incorporating the tools that they have learned throughout the course of the workshop. The exam will consist of two parts:
1. A paper that may include a letter, critical analysis, position paper, etc.
2. An oral presentation (the subject and details will be communicated after the Midterm)

ATTENDANCE POLICY:
Attendance is mandatory for all IES Abroad classes, including course-related excursions. Extra information about the course-related excursions such as dates and times will be provided by the teacher in class. Any exams, tests, presentations, or other work missed due to student absences can only be rescheduled in cases of documented medical or family emergencies. If a student misses more than three classes in any course half a letter grade will be deducted from the final grade for every additional absence. Seven absences in any course will result in a failing grade.

Students are expected to attend all class meetings and to participate actively. Their ability to speak, write and understand French can only be developed and improved through daily individual work, and in-class intensive practice. Students are expected to go to class having studied in detail the assignments as indicated on the syllabus and by the teacher in class. Should they miss class, it is their responsibility to find out what was done in class, what handouts were given, what the next assignment is, etc.
