

Study Abroad Expense Worksheet

Use the information found under the Program Costs section of your program's page on www.IESabroad.org to help you complete this worksheet. (Adapted from NAFSA Budget Worksheet for Study Abroad)

Expenses

Application fee/deposit	$
Program fee (not including deposit)*	$
Additional fees for special options associated with tuition and housing	$
Passport and entrance document fees	$
On-site fees associated with in-country consular registration (see the Predeparture Information in your MyIESabroad account)	$
Your school's administrative fees	$
Roundtrip airfare	$
Textbooks and course-related materials	$
Meals not included in IES Abroad housing	$
Health insurance	$
Estimated cell phone usage fees	$
Local transportation	$
Field trips not included in program fee	$
Personal spending money	$
Other expenses:	$
Other expenses:	$
Total Anticipated Expenses	$

*Please note that program fees and billing are specific to your home school. In general, program fees include tuition, housing, and sometimes meals. You may be billed by IES Abroad or by your home school. If billed by your home school, you may pay their fees rather than the published IES Abroad program fee. Contact your home school's study abroad office to determine the billing process and fees for your program.

Resources

Family contribution	$
Your earnings	$
Your savings	$
Stafford Loan (deduct 5% for origination fees)	$
Financial aid transferred from your home school	$
IES Abroad financial aid	$
IES Abroad scholarships	$
Other expenses:	$
Other expenses:	$
Total Anticipated Resources	$

Check with your home school regarding the transfer of financial aid.